You Served Us, We'll Serve You

You might be able to get special pension benefits that can help pay for home care services.

The program is aimed at anyone that served at least 90 days in the military with one day during wartime, so check to see if you qualify at www.va.gov, or contact your state's Department of Veterans' Affairs.

Eligible veterans can also receive low-income aid if they are paying for medical expenses that lower their income to a certain level.

Widows can qualify for aid as well. They must have been married to their veterans for one year (or have had children with them) and living with them at the time of their death. Also, they cannot remarry and still receive the aid.
